

2018 (9th) International Conference on Engineering, Project, and Production Management (EPPM2018)

Cape Town, South Africa, 24-26 September 2018

Call-for-Abstracts (extended until 15 April 2018)

We are pleased to announce that the call-for-abstracts for the 2018 (9th) International Conference on Engineering, Project, and Production Management (EPPM2018) is still open. The conference will be held in Cape Town, South Africa from 24-26 September 2018.

Accepted papers will be indexed in SCOPUS. The EPPM-Conference, indexed in Web of Science (ISI) and EBSCO in 2017, is the best platform to publish research results and exchange ideas with global participants from academia and industry. EPPM2018 comprises of three events with only one registration fee, i.e. EPPM-Industry, EPPM-Conference, and EPPM-Academy:

- EPPM-Industry: A field trip will be arranged to stimulate dialogue between academics and practitioners. An industrial symposium will be staged after the trip.
- EPPM-Conference: An international conference, indexed in ISI and EBSCO in 2017, will provide a platform for publishing research results and the exchange of ideas. A Best Paper and Excellent Paper Awards will be announced, and high scoring papers will be recommended for publication in the EPPM-Journal. Accepted papers will be indexed in SCOPUS.
- EPPM-Academy: This event will provide a student-led platform designed for graduate students to improve their research and leadership competencies. Student Competition Awards will be presented to students for outstanding performance and leadership.

Prospective participants are cordially invited to submit abstracts in the following themes:

- Theories and Applications of Engineering Management
- Theories and Applications of Project Management
